Report of the Council for the year ending July, 1946

THE COUNCIL has pleasure in presenting the 35th Annual Report. The Council has met nine times in the course of the year. The result of raising the subscription has been satisfactory, as will be seen from the Balance Sheet.

The series of illustrated talks on interpretation has been continued. Mr. Carl Dolmetsch spoke on 17th and 18th century music, and Miss May Harrison on Delius. It is generally agreed that this series makes a real contribution towards raising the standard of performance, and is of practical help to professional musicians. A lighter note was struck in Mr. Alec Robertson's talk on Victorian Music, given as part of Miss Kathleen Cooper's delightful evening reception in January. Our President had also promised us another party, but this had to be postponed owing to the condition of the room at 74 Grosvenor Street.

Ten Chamber Music concerts have been given during the year, making thirteen fixtures in all. Audiences have been so large that it is clear the Society could make use of a larger concert room. The Council would like to express regret that some excellent artists have to wait before performing at our fixtures. The arranging of well-balanced programmes and the fitting-in of artists on dates equally convenient to themselves and to the Society, give the Secretary and Council many a headache. Our list of artists is long, and our choice of dates is small, but we assure members that no one is forgotten. Here it may be relevant to mention that all new members who wish to perform at fixtures are asked to make an audition before a panel of professional musicians—experts in the various branches of the musical art, who are members of the Society but not necessarily members of Council.

In last year's Report we spoke of our plans to continue outside concert activities. A certain number of such concerts has been arranged at Training Colleges and Schools, at which our Artists' Fund has supplemented the fees offered. There are good prospects of expanding this work, and we should welcome suggestions as to places where we could be useful. The Council wish to make it plain, however, that they only help organisations which could not afford adequate fees for good artists without such help. We are in no sense a concert agency.

As members are aware, we are obliged to leave 74 Grosvenor Street at the end of the year. It has been the Society's home for 25 years, and we have many happy memories of our work there. There could scarcely be a worse time in which to find accommodation. Fixtures for the autumn term were arranged at the Forum Club by kind invitation of Mrs. Bernard, and in the spring we are being given hospitality by Miss Veronica Mansfield. Temporary office accommodation has been found for Miss Fell. But we need to plan ahead for a permanent home which shall give us a good concert room, office and library. The Council has been house-hunting for months, but prices are so inflated that for a Society without capital, the immediate outlook seems bleak. It is possible we may join forces with other musical societies which are homeless. Meanwhile, although the kindness of Mrs. Bernard and Miss Mansfield has solved the immediate problem, so that our work will go on, the situation is serious, and we do appeal to members to help us by suggestions. For the present, correspondence should be addressed to 46, Acacia Road, N.W. 8.

COMPOSERS' COMMITTEE

After a year in abeyance, the Committee met again this summer to consider compositions sent in by members. Only a small number of works were submitted, but these were almost all of high quality or promise. The Committee were able to recommend for performance two Quartets and a Wind Scherzo by Ruth Gipps, and Pieces for Piano and for 'Cello and Piano by Margaret Hubicki. They were also greatly interested in the work of a new young member, Doreen Carwithen, whom the Council have elected a Liza Lehmann member for the year. Two programmes devoted entirely to music by members were outstanding features of the summer. On the 21st of June a Concert in the Hall of India at Overseas House was arranged for the Efficiency Club by Katharine Eggar (who is at present President of that Club), when works by the following past and present members of the S.W.M. were performed, viz.—Doreen Carwithen, Cécile Chaminade, Marie Dare, Katharine Eggar, Violet Graham-Williams, Margaret Hubicki, Ivy Frances Klein, Liza Lehmann, Josephine Rhodes, Evelyn Sharpe, and Dora White.

On July 15th, the Society's birthday, the last fixture of the season and the last at 74 Grosvenor Street, was a programme of present members' works, most of them quite new. The Rawlins String Quartet played Ruth Gipps' "Sabrina" and Marie Dare's Three Highland Sketches, Gladys Marloe sang songs by Doreen Carwithen, Mary Anderson Lucas, Ivy Frances Klein, Ann Hamerton, and Marie Dare. May Mukle played solos by Josephine Rhodes and Margaret Hubicki; and Violet Graham-Williams played a Piano Sonatina by Doreen Carwithen.

LIBRARY REPORT

The Library Committee report with gratitude gifts of books from members and the first payment of the Annual Grant of £5 from the Council towards the upkeep of the Library. This has enabled a satisfactory balance to be shewn in the financial Report, and has also allowed the purchase of various scores and books essential to the Library. Amongst these are Benjamin Britten's Opera, "Peter Grimes" (vocal score), Walton's Symphony and the Supplementary Volume of Grove's Dictionary, which are now available for members' use. Owing to shortage of supply it has still been impossible to obtain the badly needed folders and boxes for the storage of music, therefore a sum of £5 from the balance in hand is held over for this purpose when the necessary goods are available. The resignation of Miss Ann Hamerton was received with regret; her help during several years has been much appreciated. It is a pleasure to have Miss Percival Hart again on the Committee; many will remember her valuable work for the Library before the war.

OBITUARY

The Council record with deep regret the deaths of the following members:—Mrs. Rose Allen, Mrs. Florence Field, Mrs. Christina Wills and Dr. Thomas Dunhill (Associate).
